Junto - Definition

A club for mutual improvement established in 1727 by Benjamin Franklin in Philadelphia.

Also known as the Leather Apron Club, its purpose was to debate questions of morals, politics, and natural philosophy, and to exchange knowledge of business affairs.

Junto - Qualifying

- Have you any particular disrespect to any present members?

- Do you sincerely declare that you love humankind in general, of what profession or religion soever?

Junto - Qualifying

- Do you think any person ought to be harmed in his or her body, name, or goods, for mere speculative opinions, or his or her external way of worship?

- Do you love truth for truth's sake, and will you endeavor impartially to find and receive it yourself, and communicate it to others?

Code of Conduct

http://www.meetup.com/DevOpsDC/pages/Code_of_Conduct/

We value the participation of each member of the community and want all attendees to have an enjoyable and fulfilling experience. Accordingly, all attendees are expected to show respect and courtesy to other attendees throughout all Meetup events.

To make clear what is expected, all delegates/attendees, speakers, exhibitors, organizers, and volunteers at any DevOpsDC event are required to conform to our Code of Conduct. Organizers will enforce this code throughout events.

Junto - The Questions

- Meetings were organized around a series of questions that Franklin devised, covering a range of intellectual, personal, business, and community topics.

DevOps

A cultural and professional movement, focused on how we build and operate high velocity organizations, born from the experiences of its practitioners.
